

Jacqueline Bowater

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST

778.366.9802

jacqueline@vocesola.com

www.vocesola.com

218 – 20226 Fraser Hwy
Langley, BC V3A 4E6

EDUCATION

Master of Science, Speech Language Pathology

University of British Columbia

Conferred November 2008

- Major: Speech Sciences
- Minor: Audiology

Bachelor of Arts

University of British Columbia

Conferred November 2006

- Major: Psychology
- Minor: Speech Sciences

Bachelor of Science

University College of the Fraser Valley

Conferred December 2004

- Major: Biology

The Royal Conservatory of Music

- Grade 8 Examination in Piano with First Class Honours
- Grade 2 Examination in Rudiments with First Class Honours

OBJECTIVE

To provide high quality and effective speech, language, and swallowing services to individuals with communication challenges, rooted in both clinical experience and established best practices.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST – Private Practice

Voce Sola Speech, Voice, & Myofunctional Therapy Inc./

Oct. 2009 - Present

- Speech and language services to preschool, school aged children, and adults, including consultation, assessment, intervention, and clinical documentation
- Experience with a variety of assessment tools – standardized, criterion referenced, and observational/informal
- Contract services for the British Columbia Autism Assessment Network (BCAAN) – participated in diagnostic assessments with a Registered Psychologist; liaised with other health care or community professionals as indicated (2014-2018)

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST – Part-Time Permanent

Ridge Meadows Child Development Centre / January 2010 –

August 2014

- Speech and language services to children aged birth to five with a variety of developmental and/or acquired challenges
- Clinical population included children with ASD, Down Syndrome, and speech and language delay/disorder in isolation or accompanying other neurological conditions
- Experience working as part of a multidisciplinary team including OT, PT, IDP, SCDP, school personnel, family support, and community pediatricians

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST – Casual

Abbotsford Public Health Unit / January 2009 – June 2013

- Speech and language services to preschool aged children
- Participated in assessment, parent education/consultation, and clinical documentation

Jacqueline Bowater

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

SPEECH AUDIOLOGY CANADA (SAC)

December 2008 - Present

SPEECH AND HEARING BC

December 2008 - Present

COLLEGE OF SPEECH AND HEARING HEALTH PROFESSIONALS OF BC

April 2010 - Present

REGISTRY OF AUTISM SERVICE PROVIDERS

May 2011 - Present

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE CONTINUED

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST - Part-Time Permanent
Abbotsford Regional Hospital & Cancer Centre / Oct. 2008 - Jan. 2010

- Speech and language services to adults with acquired neurological challenges (e.g., stroke, Parkinson's, dementia) in both acute care and nursing home settings, as well as through community outpatient services
- Identified, screened, and provided intervention/management of oro pharyngeal dysphagia
- Provided education regarding typical and atypical swallowing patterns to medical staff and clients
- Participated in interdisciplinary teamwork, medical rounds, team meetings, swallowing studies (MBS, FEES), and clinical documentation

RELATED EXPERIENCE & TRAINING

Lee Silverman Voice Treatment Training & Certification Course

- May 2008, Victoria, BC

Laryngoscopic Evaluation of Swallowing Workshop

- September 2008, Vancouver, BC

Best Practices in Videofluoroscopic Assessment and Rehabilitation for Acquired Oropharyngeal Dysphagia: An Intermediate/Advanced Course for S-LPs

- January 2009, Victoria, BC

Dysphagia in the Elderly: Choosing Effective Interventions to Ensure Positive Patient Outcomes

- June 2009, San Francisco, CA

The Lidcombe Program of Early Stuttering Intervention

- January 2010, Seattle, WA

Hanen - It Takes Two to Talk®

- April 2011, Burnaby, BC

Successful 'r' and 's/z' Treatment Workshop with Pam Marshalla

- May 2011, Burnaby, BC

Reference and Regulate Intro and Intervention

- November 2011, Maple Ridge, BC

Singing English - Level One with Dr. Fleurette Sweeney

- November 2012, Maple Ridge, BC

Introduction to Motivational Interviewing: Engaging Parents, Caregivers, & Educators in Change

- November 2013, Maple Ridge, BC

Jacqueline Bowater

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST

RELATED SKILLS

Proficient in Word, Excel
Phonetic transcription/IPA

HOBBIES & INTERESTS

Music, piano & singing
Photography
All things retro
Oral Story-Telling

RELATED TRAINING CONTINUED

Conquering R: Effective Evaluation and Intervention Procedures

- February 2014 – Online

The Professional Course on The Greenspan Floortime Approach

- July 2014, Online

Auditory & Language Processing Disorders with Dr. Gail Richards

- February 2015, Sidney, BC

Early Start Denver Model: Introduction Course

- April 2016, Online

Visualizing and Verbalizing® for Language Comprehension and Thinking

- May 2016, Edmonton, AB

Introduction to Orofacial Myofunctional Therapy (four-day course)

- October 2016, Vancouver, BC

The Alexander Technique

- Private Lessons with a Certified Alexander Teacher, monthly basis,
February 2016 – January 2019

The PESL Accent Modification Instructor Certification Course

- March – April 2018, Online

Estill Voice Training – Level One & Level Two with Anne-Marie Speed (five-day course)

- August 2018, Vancouver, BC

Adventures in Voice – Presented by Dr. Katherine Verdolini Abbott

- January 2019, Online

Resonant Voice Therapy: Tips and Tricks & Auditory – Perceptual Voice Evaluation

- February 2019, Online